

Property firm's new manager

A PROPERTY rental service has appointed a new manager to run its office in Alloa's Mill Street.

Newly-appointed Jason Shaw (pictured above) said, "I am delighted to be working for this inclusive, go-ahead young property rental company and I look forward to getting to know our tenants present and future and offering them a friendly, professional service."

Tworent has also extended its opening hours to 9.30am to 5.30pm five days a week, with late-night opening until 8pm on Wednesday.

The company has 100 properties throughout Central Scotland and is actively looking for more properties to buy.
